Please complete the statement of financial responsibility on the next page. Use the checklist below to make certain that your application is complete.

Application Checklist

Before you submit this application, check that all application papers are complete:

- This application form, with all items completed and with the signature of the applicant and the financial sponsor.
- In order to demonstrate financial capability for the quarter you wish to study, an original bank statement for privately sponsored students, or a letter of support for applicants sponsored by an institution or government agency.
- A $50 application fee.
- A photocopy of the picture page of your passport.
- If you have not been admitted to begin graduate study at Ohio State University, you must also submit a copy of your letter of admission for graduate study at a different university and a statement of degree from your undergraduate university.

Housing Information

Most ALP students choose one of the following three housing options. Please read each option carefully as you consider your choices. Please e-mail any questions you have to alp@osu.edu.

| | |
|------------------------|--|
| University dormitories | OSU dormitories are open to ALP students, but availability is sometimes limited. Mark here <input type="radio"/> if you would like the OSU Housing Office to send you information about university dormitories |
| Homestays | Live with an American Family in their home. Homestays must be reserved before you arrive in the United States. Visit the American Language Program/Connections homestay web site at http://www.connections-inc.com/OSU.html for detailed information and reservation instructions. |
| Off-campus | A variety of private dormitories and apartments are available near campus. See the Housing page on the ALP Graduate Preparation Program website (http://esl.osu.edu/GPP) for more information. |

Statement of Financial Responsibility

In order to send you a Form I-20 that will permit you to begin your study at Ohio State in the Summer Quarter 2006, you must submit documentation to demonstrate the availability of funds for your American Language Program tuition, fees, and living expenses for the summer term, $8,928.

| | |
|---|----------------|
| Tuition fee | $5,148 |
| Textbooks (approximate cost) | 200 |
| Health insurance | 479 |
| Maintenance (estimate minimum: housing, meals, personal expenses) | 3,648 |
| Total expenses (one quarter) | $9,494 |

Health insurance is required by Ohio State University policy. Students are automatically included in the Student Health Insurance Program and the premium of $479 is added to student fees each quarter

Please note: Students must purchase the University health insurance unless they have insurance coverage from a sponsoring government embassy or from a major international organization, or they are covered with U.S.-based insurance as a U.S.-based employee or a dependent of a U.S.-based employee. Travel insurance or any insurance purchased in home country will not satisfy the University requirement.

Applicants who bring their spouse or children must show additional financial support of $1,583 each quarter for the spouse and $791 for each child. Optional insurance costs for a spouse are $827 per quarter; for a child or children $844; for spouse and children $1,290.

·Applicant using a funding agency (government, organization, or institution/school): Your financial sponsor must submit a letter of support which specifically names The Ohio State University.

·Applications using private finances: You must complete the form below and attach an original bank statement.

Applicant:

Name _____
