Community Contact #2: Asia

Talk to at least two American undergraduate students about the following questions. Use these questions as a starting point for your discussion, but feel free to ask additional questions and to let the conversation go into more depth on any of these issues.

1. What Asian countries do you know something about?
2. What aspects do you know about and what exactly do you know about:
 - their political systems
 - their economy
 - their history
 - their cultures
 - their locations and landforms
 - their food
 - their weather
 - their languages
 - their religions and philosophies
 - (any other topics that come up)
3. What do you expect Asian people to be like in terms of personality?
4. What do you expect Asian people to be like as teachers?
